SALUTATIONS FROM SHAWN

Is It A Secret? Not According to Jesus

As the twelve disciples gathered around Jesus, he said to them, "To you has been given the secret of the kingdom of God." (Mark 4:11)

Really? From where I'm at, the secret still seems hidden, difficult to find and understand. The stresses of day-to-day living, compounded by the continuing pandemic, make it difficult for me to believe there are answers in the midst of so much confusion and distrust.

Maybe what is needed is a change in my perspective, just as the Apostle Peter needed to change his mind to understand God's secret.

Angered at Peter, Jesus told him to stop setting his mind on human things. Peter needed to set his mind on the divine. (Mark 8:33)

Throughout the Gospel of Mark, Jesus endeavored to teach the disciples (and us!) how to focus on God's priorities. Peter found this difficult: surely God wanted what Peter wanted, namely the restoration of Israel. Jesus thought differently. He didn't obsess about Israel's past glory or spend all of his time planning for Israel's future. Instead he spoke of the present moment with God near to offer the good news of new life.

Jesus set his mind on what was important, paying attention to the moment, especially to the people in that moment as God would do. Jesus taught us we can live fully in the present when we understand that God is with us every moment, actively helping us.

"Nothing is hidden, except to be disclosed; nor is anything secret, except to come to light," Jesus told the disciples.

As we listen to Jesus, admitting at times he speaks of mysteries we don't understand, we can trust in God to reveal the secrets of life in each moment as we serve God through Christ and serve others with love.

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Shawn

Confirmation: Becoming Christ's Disciples

Our two new confirmands, Riley Bradley and Ryan Hillje, will join in covenant with the church on World Communion Sunday, October 3, as they prepare to confirm their baptism in Christ to become full members of the church while the congregation promises to encourage, support and love them in the process. Riley and Ryan are participating in the CROP Walk that afternoon, so please considering donating to their efforts to "End Hunger One Step at a Time."

Confirmation Class will begin Sunday, October 10, after worship in the Kline Room. Anyone in sixth grade or older who is interested in confirming their baptism into Christ is welcome to participate.

The CROP Walk Challenge

Through Seeds to Grow, the church has donated $500 of mission money to support the CROP Walk. Our two confirmands, Riley Bradley and Ryan Hillje, are working with Pastor Shawn to gather more donations than the church. If the three raise more than $500, they will "pie" Chris Evans, our music director. If they don't receive more than $500, Chris will pie the three of them. If you would like to donate online, go to www.crophungerwalk.org/schuylkillhavenpa and enter "First UCC Schuylkill Haven" in the search box to "Register" as a walker or to donate to the First UCC team.

MUSIC NEWS

In early summer, our music director Chris Evans announced that he was resigning his position, very thoughtfully giving six months' notice, knowing it would be difficult to find another church musician. (Notice we're not talking about replacing Chris because that would be impossible!)

Driving by the church, a church musician saw our sign seeking a new music director and thought maybe it was a sign from God that it was time to stop commuting to Williamsport on Sundays.

Join Consistory in welcoming our new Music Director...

Jacqueline Engel moved to Schuylkill County in January 2020 to take the Executive Director position at the Walk In Art Center. Prior to moving she taught voice and piano at a rock music school and ran a theatre company in the Williamsport area for the 16 years prior. She was the Music Director at New Covenant United Church of Christ since 2003 but is excited to fully commit to being a Schuylkill County resident and to begin working with First UCC. Jacquie has a BA in Music from Lycoming College and MA in Arts Administration from the University of Kentucky. She is a rabid UK Basketball fan (Go CATS!) and she is mom to her fur babies: a Cavalier King Charles Spaniel named Mr. Bingley and two pound kitties, Benny and Bea.

Chris' last Sunday with us will be November 21, when we will give thanks for his musical blessings to the church. We will welcome Jacquie on the First Sunday of Advent, November 28, as she joins us for Hanging of the Greens.

One pint of blood can save up to three lives.
